Bellevue News.

Wm. King was in St. Louis last week.

J. O. Campbell and wife were in Ironton last Tuesday.

C. F. Shelton and family visited in Caledonia the latter part of last week.

Miss Annie Campbell was in Ironton shopping last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Bell were in Ironton last Saturday.

Geon Gibbs left last Sunday to spend the summer on the farm with his cousin, Walter Bollinger.

Raymond Johnston and John Breitenstein, of St. Louis, visited home folks here the first of the week.

Rev. Philip Hartman, Presiding Elder in the Montana Conference, filled the pulpit in the Baptist Church last Wednesday evening. He and his family left here last Sunday to visit his brother in Reynolds county, before returning to his work.

Archie Campbell, who has been in Los Angeles, Cal., for the past three years, returned home last Sunday.

Rev. Newton Smith delivered an excellent sermon on Temperance, at the Presbyterian Church, last Sunday.

Rev. M. M. Blaise did not fill his appointment at Belgrade last Sunday on account of scarlet fever at that place.

The young people, chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Bell, quietly assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joel C. Ricketts, who were married a month ago, and gave them a shower, consisting of granite ware, china, table and bed linen. A pleasant evening was spent.

An Entertainment consisting of two dramas, "My Aunt's Heiress" by eleven girls, and "A Case of Suspicion" by five young ladies and five young men, each lasting an hour, will be given at the Hall on next Saturday evening, beginning at 7:30. Good music will be furnished between the acts. The young folks are giving this entertainment for the purpose of securing money with which to paper the Methodist Church. So let us give them our support and encouragement. They hope to see a full house of a quiet, appreciative audience.

ALPHA.

Farmers out here were very busy last week breaking ground preparatory to planting corn. It is said that a few of our farmers will plant corn this week, but others much prefer to wait until later, as the ground is very cold yet.

We are glad to be able to state the prospects out here are good for apples, peaches, and plums. But few cherries, however.

It is said, indeed, to know that even a few of our noble young men must give up their lives on account of the diabolical outrages of greaser Mexicans.

E. M. Logan and son, J. L., have the finest male Herford we ever saw. They purchased him from a stock dealer in Oklahoma, had him shipped to Iron Mountain, from which place he was driven to Mr. Logan's farm here. When loaded on the car at Oklahoma City, the Herford weighed exactly 2,200 lbs., but when put on Mr. Logan's scales here, it tipped the beam at 2,117 lbs., having lost 83 lbs. while being shipped here. We understand that, including freight and other expenses, the Herford cost Logan between four and five hundred dollars.

There has been more apple trees set out the past two weeks in this valley than we ever before saw during the fifteen years we have resided here. This speaks well for our farmers, and shows that they are beginning to think along this line, which has been so very much neglected. The writer ordered a few very choice apple and pear trees from the Wells Wholesale Nurseries, New York, set them out three weeks ago, and they are now beginning to thrive nicely. We understand that Wm. Boring set out about one hundred apple trees, while many others set out nearly as many.

Ed. Walters spent a few days on his farm here last week, and while here gave the writer a short call. Mr. W. has just ordered a threshing machine, a six-horse power gasoline engine, to use for threshing stock peas. He also ordered a wood-saw attachment for the engine. It is said that the machinery all worked admirably well. Raymond Johnston, who has been working on a threshing machine in St. Louis, returned home Saturday.

S. Gillam and family, of Los Angeles, California, are now in the valley.

Fred McColl made a trip to Iron Mountain Saturday.

Mrs. Wm. Kneiss spent Thursday afternoon visiting Mrs. J. T. Patterson.

H. Latham and wife visited Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Farmer, near Caledonia, Sunday.

Some prospective land-buyers were in the valley last week.

Mrs. E. E. Chambers visited friends in Bismarck last week.

Richard McKinney, who has been confined to his room for a month, is able to be up and around again.

J. P. McColl called on the writer, Monday last week.

Geo. Gallaher, Edgehill, had business in the valley last week.

Drummer Townsend was in town last week.

Married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Schulz, on Tuesday, April 14th, at 2 o'clock, Miss Elsie Schulz to Herman Roeh of Bellevue. Rev. Wideman of Farmington pronouncing the words that made them man and wife. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Schulz and has a host of friends in this vicinity, while the groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Roehre of near Bellevue and is very popular in that community. The bride was gowned in a beautiful white messaline dress draped with silk chiffon and with lilies of the valley arranged in her veil and hair. The groom was attired in a black suit. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Esther, who wore a dress of pale silk soisette trimmed in shadow lace and messaline. The groomsmen were Ernest Schulz. The couple left the same evening for St. Louis, where they will spend several days. They will be at home to their many friends after April 20th, near Bellevue, where the groom has furnished a neat little home.—Bismarck Gazette.

The Old Home Town.

Author Unknown.

The day seldom arrives in a man's life when he ceases to be interested in the daily or weekly paper of the place that he once called home. Granted that it is printed on the poorest paper; granted that there are no editorials, or editorials that are not worth reading—grant all this still your feelings and mine and those of every other healthy mortal are summoned up in this little poem from Denver Post:

When the evening shade is fallin' at the endin' o' the day,
An' a feller rests from labor, smokin' at his pipe o' clay,
There's nothin' does him so much good, be fortune up or down
As the little country paper from his Old Home Town.

It ain't a thing of beauty and its print ain't always clean,
But it straightens out his temper when a feller's feelin' mean.
It takes the wrinkles off his face an' brushes off the frown,
That little country paper from his Old Home Town.

It tells of all the parties an' the balls of Pumpkin Row,
'Bout who spent Sunday with who's girl, and how the Crops'll grow, and how it keeps a feller posted 'bout who's 'Up an' who's down, that little paper from his Old Home Town.

Now, I like to read the dailies an' story papers too
An' at times the yaller novels an' some other trash—don't you?
But when I want some readin' that'll brush away a frown
I want the little paper from my Old Home Town.
